

Insight Statements Tip Card

INSIGHT STATEMENTS

When we hear statements like these below, our interest is peaked. Instead of making your audience do all the work, you are being the consultant and enlightening them.

What this means to you is...

The bottom line is...

The one thing I want you to focus on is...

Let me give you an example...

When I looked at these numbers what I most focused on was...

I'd like to call out...

There are a number of items here, but let me just focus on...

The key takeaway is...

My main point is...

If you leave with just one thing, what I want you to leave with is...

I've picked a couple of things to cover out of the group...

In my experience when...

If you focus on the bolded items, I think you'll see that...

What I find interesting to note is...

In my opinion...

I think one explanation is that...

When I look at this, what I see is...

From my perspective...

One observation I have made is that...

Sharing your insight means sharing:

Experiences	Stories
Examples	Opinions
Explanations	Observations
Thinking	Approach
Philosophy	Perspective

© Spoken Impact, Inc. 2012

SpokenImpact.com